

rection of James Sangston, George Reid, Thomas Burchinal, Jacob Charles, and Abraham Jump, Jr., or any two of them; at Chestertown, for Kent county, for 222 shares, under the direction of Ezekiel F. Chambers, Jos. Wickes, James Alfred Pearce, William Hayne, and Garrett Garrettson, or any two of them; at Princess Anne, for Somerset county, for 445 shares, under the direction of Littleton P. Dennis, William W. Handy, Thomas King Carroll, Littleton U. Dennis, and Joseph S. Cottman, or any two of them; at Elkton, for Cecil county, for 373 shares, under the direction of James Sewall, John Evans, Levin Gale, Lewis Thomas, and George A. Thomas, or any two of them; at Snow Hill, for Worcester county, for 422 shares, under the direction of Ephraim K. Wilson, John S. Spence, George W. Purnell, James Powell, and James H. Milbourne, or any two of them.

4th. Strike out the 3d section, and insert the following.

And be it enacted, that the commissioners appoint by this act for receiving subscriptions in the city of Baltimore, or a majority of them, shall meet to determine on the time and manner of receiving the same, which shall be within four months from the passage of this act; and they shall provide suitable books for receiving the subscriptions, and furnish such as are necessary to the commissioners appointed for the different counties, and notify them of the time and manner of proceeding.

5th. Strike out all that part of the 4th section to the word "county" in the 15th line inclusive, and insert the following—

And be it enacted, that the said commissioners after having given not less than two weeks public notice at the several places herein specified for receiving subscriptions for the said stock, shall proceed to receive the same; but no individual, firm, or corporation shall be permitted to subscribe on the first day for more than ten shares; and, if the whole number of shares allotted as aforesaid, be not subscribed on the first day, the books shall remain open on the second day; and if at the end of the second day the whole amount of such allotment shall not have been subscribed the books shall be closed, and those under the direction of the commissioners in the different counties shall be certified by them respectively, and transmitted, together with the funds received, as soon as may be, to the commissioners appointed for the city and county of Baltimore; Provided always, that in case the commissioners for any one or more